

The California Conference Board of Amalgamated Transit Union Endorses Dave Jones for Attorney General

Today, the California Conference Board of the Amalgamated Transit Union (ATU) - the largest union representing transit workers - announced their strong support for Dave Jones for Attorney General.

ATU has over 13 local unions spread across California, representing thousands of hard working men and women in both public and private transit companies. ATU is a member of the AFL-CIO.

"I am proud to be endorsed by the California Conference Board of Amalgamated Transit Union which has successfully fought for fair wages and safe working conditions for thousands of transit workers. It's an honor to have ATU's support and I look forward to working with them in fighting for all California workers as Attorney General." -- Dave Jones

The California Conference Board of ATU unanimously endorsed Dave Jones as the best choice for Attorney General based on his experience and vision to reform our criminal justice system and track record of standing up for workers.

Dave Jones is a fighter and more than ever, California needs a leaders like Dave to fight for justice.
