

California National Organization for Women (NOW) PAC endorses Dave Jones for Attorney General

Jones' record of leadership on a wide range of women's rights and social justice issues makes him our choice to be California's next AG.

The California National Organization for Woman (NOW) PAC announced its endorsement today of Dave Jones for Attorney General.

"Dave Jones has a decades long history of fighting to improve the lives of women and girls. Jones is a champion for fair pay, reproductive justice, LGBT rights, violence prevention and gender and racial equality. Dave Jones has taken on insurance companies, pharmaceutical companies, and hospitals systems on behalf of consumers and won in court over and over again.

Dave Jones isn't afraid to take on powerful special interest groups to fight for the rights of those who often feel powerless. Dave Jones has spent the last seven years leading a statewide consumer protection and law enforcement agency. With Dave Jones, we will have an Attorney General with the experience to defeat the Trump Administration in court and the courage to fight here at home for criminal justice reform, single payer health care, and against the corporate greed that perpetuates income inequality," explained Kolieka Seigle, President of California NOW.

"I am proud to have the endorsement of the California National Organization for Women," said Dave Jones, candidate for Attorney General. "I look forward to continuing to work with NOW's leaders to make further progress as we pursue gender and racial equality and social justice."
