

The Harvey Milk LGBTQ Democratic Club - San Francisco's largest Democratic Club - joined a host of LGBTQ organizations in supporting Dave Jones for Attorney General. Founded in 1976, the Club has been instrumental in electing progressive candidates who are part a part of or strongly supportive of the LGBTQ community.

"The Harvey Milk LGBTQ Democratic Club membership affirmatively endorsed Dave Jones for Attorney General because of his track record of being a true progressive activist and a friend of the LGBTQ community. The Club's membership determined that Dave Jones is the most qualified candidate to resist Trump and his regressive policies, and that Dave can deliver swift action and tangible results." - Harvey Milk LGBTQ Democratic Club Co-Presidents Carolina Morales and Honey Mahogany.

"It's an honor to receive the support of the Harvey Milk LGBTQ Democratic Club, whose members are on front lines of the fight for progressive policies in San Francisco and throughout California. The Harvey Milk LGBTQ Democratic Club has been at the forefront of the effort to defend LGBTQ rights from assault. I look forward to working with the Harvey Milk LGBTQ Democratic Club to continue to advance a progressive agenda for California," said Dave Jones, candidate for Attorney General.

The Harvey Milk LGBTQ Democratic Club joins other prominent LGBTQ organizations to endorse Dave Jones for Attorney General. Other LGBTQ organizations endorsing Dave Jones for Attorney General include the Stonewall Democratic Club and the Stonewall Young Democrats.
