

THE SACRAMENTO BEE

The Sacramento Bee Endorses Dave Jones for Attorney General

The highly respected Sacramento Bee -with nearly 300,000 subscribers - has backed Dave Jones for Attorney General.

While the Bee also had positive things to say about the other Democratic candidate Xavier Becerra, it pointed out that Dave Jones has the most experience when it comes to running a state agency.

"Jones, a former assemblyman and Sacramento City Councilman, and before that, a special assistant to U.S. Attorney General Janet Reno, has been an effective consumer advocate as insurance commissioner, and has pushed good legislation to protect policyholders reeling from recent natural disasters. He also has experience running a state agency, a side of the job arguably new to Becerra." - Sacramento Bee Editorial, 4/23/18.

The Sacramento Bee endorsement comes just days after the San Jose Mercury News and East Bay Times' unequivocal support for Jones, stating "...the best candidate is Dave Jones, state insurance commissioner since 2010 who has aggressively protected consumers while being fair to the industry he oversees."

These prestigious newspapers indicate that experience and proven leadership truly matters. That's why they are supporting Dave Jones.
